

Alumni Committee

It consists primarily of volunteers from the members of the association. The committee acts as a bridge between the members and the office bearers and often joins discussions in implementing the initiatives. It also collectively represents the opinions of the members in internal and general body meetings.

At Shri GPM Degree college, we recognize the pivotal role that our alumni play in shaping the institution's legacy. They not only embody our rich history but also serve as beacons of inspiration for current and future batches. Our alumni community comprises accomplished individuals from diverse cohorts, who have achieved remarkable success in leading organizations around the world, including a significant number who have become successful entrepreneurs.
